

Higher-order stress derivatives against an independent reference relative difference from the 80-digit reference (dimensionless)

○ repeated directions

□ mixed directions

the reference resolves these values only to $8e-06$; everything below this line is indistinguishable from it

77 of 108 comparisons are independently shown to be zero, where a relative error is not a measurement; 0 are unresolved

